

Octagramian

A free form shape making puzzle.

You will need a single square of any kind of paper.

The challenge is to fold this square to create the shape shown below, which is a right angle cornered Octagram, using the minimum number of folds.

No cuts are allowed.

The number of folds required is probably less than you imagine at first.